DMSNS-MMM Seminar series

A joint initiative of the section "Decision-making, Social Networks, and Society" (DMSNS) of the American Sociological Association and of the research committee 45 "Micro-Macro Modelling" (MMM) of the International Sociological Association

The DMSNS-MMM Seminar series will advance the research agenda of our two sections by featuring work exploring micro-macro linkages and the complex interplay of decision-making processes and social network dynamics in shaping sociological patterns and outcomes.

April 23, 2026 (11am-1pm EST)

Hendrik Erz (Linköping University - IAS) –Brittle Parties? Dissent, Breaking Ranks, and Party Power in U.S. Congress.

Marc Keuschnigg (University of Leipzig) –Gender and cultural centrality in musical genres.

Ana Macanovic (University of Utrecht) –Structural and Cultural Pathways to Novelty Introduction in an Online Community.

Mario Molina (NYU Abu Dhabi) –On the Margins: Liminal Group Memberships in Population Structure and Psychological Well-Being in the United States.

January 30, 2026 (11am-1pm EST)

Scott Duxbury and Jenna Wertsching (University of North Carolina Chapel Hill) –Micro Effects on Macro Structure: Identification, Interpretation, Mediation, and Sensitivity Analysis for Model Selection.

Peng Huang (University of Georgia) –Rooted America: Immobility and Segregation of the Intercounty Migration Network.

Linda Zhao (University of Chicago) –Networks at Work: Officer Diversity, Network Segregation, and Police Misconduct.

Venue: on-line.

To get the connection link, please write to:

Fabien ACCOMINOTTI (ASA DMSNS' chair) –accominotti@wisc.edu
Gianluca MANZO (ISA MMM's chair) –gianluca.manzo@Sorbonne-universite.fr